

Cohort 1 2021 Funding

Alamosa School District

Youth Connections Implementation Plan for Alamosa School District

Funds will be used to advance a three-year implementation plan with the goal to improve mental health, well-being and resiliency for students by strengthening the ability of educators and schools to provide a culture and climate that meets students' social, emotional, and academic needs.

$217,500

Cañon City School District

Youth Connections Implementation Plan for Cañon City School District

Funds will be used to advance a three-year implementation plan with the goal to improve mental health, well-being and resiliency for students by strengthening the ability of educators and schools to provide a culture and climate that meets students' social, emotional, and academic needs.

$165,000

Mesa County Valley SD #51

Youth Connections Implementation Plan for Mesa County Valley SD #51

Funds will be used to advance a three-year implementation plan with the goal to improve mental health, well-being and resiliency for students by strengthening the ability of educators and schools to provide a culture and climate that meets students' social, emotional, and academic needs.

$150,000

Sheridan School District

Youth Connections Implementation Plan for Sheridan School District

Funds will be used to advance a three-year implementation plan with the goal to improve mental health, well-being and resiliency for students by strengthening the ability of educators and schools to provide a culture and climate that meets students' social, emotional, and academic needs.

$174,450

Cohort 2 2021 Funding

Adams 12 Five Star Schools

Youth Connections Learning and Planning for Adams 12

Century Middle School and Mountain Range High School will engage in learning and planning for the Youth Connections project.

$60,000

Delta County School District 50J

Youth Connections Learning and Planning for Delta County Schools 50-J

The Delta and North Fork communities of schools will engage in learning and planning for the Youth Connections project. Delta Middle and Delta High School will represent the Delta community. Paonia K-8, Hotchkiss K-8, and North Fork High School will represent the North Fork community.

$60,000

Pueblo School District 60

Pueblo District 60 Youth Connections

Pueblo Academy of Arts Middle School and Pueblo South High School will engage in learning and planning for the Youth Connections Project.

$60,000

Weld County RE 1 - Gilcrest

Weld RE-1 Youth Connections

North Valley Middle School and Valley High School will engage in learning and planning for the Youth Connections project.

$60,000