

Funding Opportunity: Children, Youth, and Families

PURPOSE: Support opportunities that create equity for children, youth, and their families in Pueblo County

Focus Area: Behavioral Health

DESIRED RESULT: All children, youth, and their families experience optimal behavioral health.

WHY WE CARE

We believe all children, youth, and their families deserve to experience optimal behavioral health.

High-quality behavioral health promotion and prevention efforts are essential in preventing or reducing unhealthy risk behaviors among children and adolescents. These services must be culturally responsive, affordable, and accessible, promoting autonomy, self-advocacy, and trust.

When additional support or intervention is needed, accessible, family-centered behavioral health services become vital. Mental and behavioral health issues often emerge in early childhood or adolescence, shaped by family dynamics and interactions. This underscores the importance of providing comprehensive support not only for young people but also for their families.

By prioritizing culturally responsive care, providers ensure that interventions are relevant, respectful, and effective, fostering trust and a sense of belonging within the communities they serve. This holistic approach enhances the overall well-being of both children and their families.

Eligible Funding Strategies

To increase the experience of optimal behavioral health for children, youth, and families, we fund strategies that:

- Help young people make informed decisions and establish positive behaviors related to behavioral health, such as staying active, eating a nutritious diet, getting enough sleep, refraining from substance misuse, delaying early sexual activity, and preventing STIs and unwanted pregnancy
- Support children, youth, and their families experiencing behavioral health crises
- Provide access to high-quality, affordable, and culturally responsive behavioral healthcare, including efforts to address gaps in services or remove barriers to quality care
- Use a systems-level approach to maintain a diverse and affordable network of behavioral health services and support

Grantmaking Guiding Principles

Caring for Colorado partners with a local community advisory board to provide grant funding to organizations that serve Pueblo County. The Sperry S. and Ella Graber Packard Fund for Pueblo Advisory Board prioritizes funding for organizations and programs that are guided by community voice, are culturally responsive, focus on equity, and demonstrate significant impact. The advisory board's has established shared definitions of key terms, guidance, and recommended strategies for success. Learn more about our advisory board guiding principles.

Application Review Process and Timeline

Caring for Colorado utilizes a two-part online application process. No registration is needed to submit the Part 1 application, which is designed to provide grant seekers with a quick, low-barrier opportunity to share basic information about the organization and proposed work. Staff reviews Part 1 applications to determine eligibility and alignment with the funding opportunity.

Organizations that submit a Part 1 application by 5:00 p.m. on January 16, 2025 will be notified about the status of their application by January 27, 2025. If an application is declined, the organization will receive an email from the director of place-based philanthropy with a brief explanation of the decision. Organizations that are invited to move forward in the review process will be asked to complete the Part 2 application by 5:00 p.m. on February 20, 2025. The Part 2 application must be submitted via Caring for Colorado's online grants portal.

Organizations invited to submit a Part 2 application will also be required to participate in a site visit with staff and community advisory board members. Following a comprehensive review process, the community advisory board will submit its funding recommendations to the Caring for Colorado Centennial Fund board of directors for final approval. Following board approval, the director of place-based philanthropy will notify applicants of grant decisions by May 22, 2025. The grant start date is July 1, 2025.

Learning & Assessment

How Your Application Informs Our Learning

The Part 1 application requires basic organizational data that Caring for Colorado collects to inform the decision-making process and help the foundation track and assess key grantmaking metrics over time (e.g., counties served, budget size, populations served, etc.).

The Part 2 application requires organizations to establish at least one objective and subsequent outcome for each eligible funding strategy selected. If funded, the grantee will report on the results of objectives(s) and outcomes(s) after 12 months.

POST GRANT AWARD:

In addition to reporting on grant objectives and outcomes, grantees will be asked optional learning questions in their annual grant report. These questions are designed to support Caring for Colorado in assessing our Packard Fund for Pueblo funding approach and create opportunities to share best practices and lessons learned with other grantees working on the same strategies.

Grantees will not be expected to implement any specific measurement tools or be asked to explicitly evaluate the impact of their work on the funding opportunity's desired results. We understand that organizations use different tools and methods to track data and measure impact, and we are confident that those will be helpful in reflecting on the funding opportunity's impact.

Connect with our Director of Place-Based Philanthropy

The director of place-based philanthropy is available to answer questions that will help you determine eligibility and prepare your Part 1 Application. We recommend you watch the Children, Youth, and Families Webinar and review application resources before scheduling a meeting. Schedule a meeting with Gina Lopez Ferguson.

How to Apply
